- To demonstrate to the nations, through the Love of God that they are not forgotten, they are not abandoned, but are called to be children of God and are loved by the Body of Jesus Christ
- To raise up new generations with extraordinary faith to believe that God can change nations through them.
- To raise up fathers and mothers of faith, building the Kingdom through discipleship, they making them “fishers of men.”

Jen Cook Missionary

Bridging the Gap

About Jen

A missionary since 2001, Jen has served in various roles both in the US and abroad: Philippines (2002), Guatemala (2004), Costa Rica (2008) and Honduras (2011 - 2023). Currently, she is serving full-time based in the north central FL area, USA. Jen is “Bridging the Gap” by working and traveling within the US to share the work in Honduras, allowing others to be connected to good soil. Among many things, she is doing ministry through a local church and staying connected with the JTTN team in Honduras with project and co-leading short-term missions trips abroad. She also offers services as a Christian Life Coach and Biblical Counselor.

Jen has always had a heart for the spiritually impoverished. She loves to come alongside people to teach, coach, and disciple. She wants to see you credited with the Salvation of Lost Souls in the US, Honduras and the World, bringing Hope and Encouragement to the hopeless and witnessing a World-wide Revival.

By joining Jen’s Team of committed prayer and faithful financial partners you will be fulfilling a vital role in Christ’s Great Commission, also reaping the Blessings of Spiritual Fruit credited to your Account in Heaven! Connect today with the Joy, Blessing and Eternal Reward of being an expression of Christ to the Nations!

Short-Term Mission Trips

Each mission trip is different and we will work with you or your team leader to customize your missions experience. Aside from your personal relationship with God, very few things will change your life the way an overseas mission trip will! You will see and experience God in a whole new way, broaden your experience and open your eyes to another way of life, learn about other cultures and maybe even consider missions as a lifestyle.

As an Ordained Minister and Certified Life Coach Jen also offers services in Christian Life Coaching and Biblical Counseling.

Bible Institute/Discipleship

God has done amazing things through our Bible Institute, raising up and maturing Christians in the Word of God, preparing them to Lead and Evangelize. Solid, biblical training teaching foundational truths of the Bible helps build a deeper relationship with God through a deeper understanding of His Word. Many lay Pastors have received little or no education in the Word of God but have such a desire to mature in their biblical knowledge. This training empowers them to be better Pastors.

Prophetic Evangelism/ Humanitarian Aid

Part of our vision is to train Believers in prophetic ministry. People are seeking the supernatural and are spiritually hungry for God. We introduce them to the supernatural power of God in unexpected ways! If they have physical hunger, or are in need of medicines, vitamins, or food, we assist so that they are encouraged and energetic to want to learn more about God!
